

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE YOUR WIFE'S HOME KEEPER

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Danielson.

Chicago, July 9.—"Housekeeping is the loneliest work in the world," says Isaac Danielson.

Isaac ought to know. For Isaac is a househusband. And a fine, brawny, well set up househusband he is.

"And what's a 'househusband?'" you ask.

Tut, tut! Surely you know that the sexes are changing places. When the housewife goes out and hustles for a living, somebody's got to stay at home and do
